About the Workshop

NOVAFRICA, a knowledge center based at the Nova School of Business and Economics of the Universidade Nova de Lisboa, is organizing a Ph.D. Workshop on Experimental Development Economics. This workshop is an opportunity for doctoral students and junior researchers interested in experimental development economics to share their ongoing work and receive critical feedback. This event is organized by NOVAFRICA doctoral students and attended by NOVAFRICA faculty members.

The workshop will take place at Nova School of Business and Economics. The workshop is followed by the NOVAFRICA Conference on Economic Development. This year's conference keynote speakers will be Seema Jayachandran (Northwestern), Mushfiq Mobarak (Yale), Jakob Svensson (Stockholm University). You may be interested attending both events.

Invitation to submit: We are looking for contributions on the broad theme of experiments in development economics. We welcome complete papers as well as early-stage projects with at least a paper draft or a substantially developed research proposal.

Scientific Committee: Mattia Fracchia, Matilde Grácio, and Stefan Leeffers

Workshop Website: <https://novafrica.org/research/2022-novafrica-phd-workshop-on-experimental-development-economics/>

Submission guidelines and timetable: Please submit your application in this Google Form. Submissions are expected by April 12, 2022. Decisions will be made by April 30, 2022.

For further questions or information about attending the workshop without presenting, please email eventosnovafrica@novasbe.pt. For additional details on NOVAFRICA and past events, please visit www.novafrica.org.

We welcome your submission!
